

bathroom

Song Saa Private Island

Koh Rong, Cambodia

Architect: The Robinson Crusoe feeling meets upscale barefoot tourism: wild, unspoiled nature, lush tropical interior and barefoot beaches as smooth as satin. There, in the Cambodian archipelago of Koh Rong in the Gulf of Thailand, is the idyllic luxury hideaway Song Saa Private Island. The exclusive resort surrounded by nature consists of twenty-seven private mansions extending over the islands of Koh Ouen and Koh Bong, connected only by a suspension bridge. The treatments in the holistic tradition of Buddhism are harmoniously integrated in the stay on Song Saa Private Island and enable those in search of rest the deepest relaxation and sense of wellbeing in a new affinity with the energy of life.

from above to below, from left to right: bar at the beach, living room, bathroom, overwater deck at sunset

from left to right, from above to below: villa with pool, bedroom, terrace