ANGUILLA

FIVE-BEDROOM
BEACHFRONT VILLA,
VICEROY ANGUILLA,
BARNES BAY

Enjoying an oceanfront location, but close enough to the resort's amenities, this palatial villa features marble bathrooms, four-post beds, a private pool, spa pool, outdoor showers, outdoor grill, kitchen, sun deck with views of the bay and the services of a lifestyle assistant. For an extra fee, a private chef can also be supplied.

CAMBODIA

ROYAL VILLA, SONG SAA ISLAND

Perched on stilts over turquoise waters, this spacious two-bedroom villa is the ultimate exotic refuge. There's a private pool, kitchen, indoor dining for 12, bar with a mojito-making station and sunken bath. An outdoor terrace makes a great spot for watching the vibrant sunsets and a guest ambassador will ensure all needs are met during your stay. There's even a private jetty for arrival by boat.

MEXICO

FOUR-BEDROOM
PENTHOUSE, GRAND
SOLMAR LAND'S END,
LOS CABOS

The kitchen in this bright and airy villa is enormous, and just as well – with vistas of the Pacific at every turn, you'll be happy to cook most evenings. A large terrace has a host of creature comforts, from squishy sofas and elegant rugs to billowing drapes that offer respite from the sun. The private pool with Jacuzzi is the highlight.

PUERTO RICO

GOVERNOR'S SUITE,
THE ST. REGIS BAHIA BEACH
RESORT, RIO GRANDE

For those who enjoy a good pampering, this is the last word in luxury. The bathroom of this 2,510 sq ft suite boasts an oversized marble bath, rain showers and a double vanity with embedded LCD TV. The kitchen comes with private elevator access for the butler, but it's the fully furnished terrace with views of the ocean that really impresses.

AUSTRALIA

BEACH HOUSE, QUALIA,
HAMILTON ISLAND

A great place to visit with a group, this sophisticated beach house seats 10 around a dining table that looks out over the 39ft infinity pool to the Coral Sea and Whitsunday Islands beyond. As well as 24-hour chauffeur service around the island and use of an electric buggy throughout your stay, there's a fully stocked bar and pantry filled with fine local and international produce.

GREECE

GRAND SUITE, MYKONOS
GRAND HOTEL, MYKONOS

There's no shortage of chill-out areas with the Grand Suite, from the private infinity pool jutting out over the Aegean Sea to the spacious bathtub with equally enviable views. A calm palette of neutrals complements the surrounding whitewashed churches and houses, allowing the calming blue waters to do the talking. There are two bedrooms and a separate living area.

MALDIVES

SUPERIOR WATER VILLA,
CONRAD MALDIVES
RANGALI ISLAND RESORT

Drift off to sleep to the sound of lapping waves in this dreamy villa. The ocean-facing bed gives stunning views of the crystal-clear waters, while the generous private sun deck has a whirlpool and wooden loungers and is the perfect spot to spend a lazy afternoon. Wooden flooring throughout and stylish bath products add an extra dimension of class.

MEXICO

GRAND CLASS
PRESIDENTIAL SUITE,
GRAND VELAS, RIVIERA MAYA

Sculptures from around the world, hand-painted frescos, and mahogany paneling: this two-bedroom suite is a mecca for those who love design. A new addition is the champagne and caviar bar, while further luxuries include a daily massage, a concierge, butler and maid. But the real highlight is the exotic setting – with both ocean and jungle views.
